

DF960

SINGLE SIDED GAS FIREPLACE

Designed with renovators in mind, the Escea DF960 Gas Fireplace features Direct Vent Power Flue technology with flexible flues that can run up, down, and even horizontally, making it just as suitable for modern new builds as traditional installs.

With Escea's new Bead Burner technology and latest Splitwood fuelbed, be captivated by softer, richer flames with lifelike embers and large logs that mimic the nature of a real fireplace burning. The DF Series provides greater design freedom, delivering a complete symphony of fire.
